

Hey Hey Hallelujah (feat. Andy Grammer)

Rachel Platten

I'm turning you up, I'm turning you on Your head's saying danger, danger, but your heart must be drunk
And I know you don't settle and I know you're not weak
But I think you can't help it, help it when it comes to me I really got a hold on you
You're begging me for more
You never seen nobody do the things I do before singing
Hey hey hallelujah, hey hey hallelujah
Yeah I drive you crazy and your heart's about to break
You're begging me for mercy, don't know how much you can take, singing
Hey hey hallelujah, hey hey hallelujah Tonight I'm so cold, not calling you back
But tomorrow we'll cuddle, cuddle, my legs in your lap (you know it)
And your friends tried to warn you
She'll tear you apart, she's nothing but trouble, trouble
She's playing you hard
I really got a hold on you
You're begging me for more
You never seen nobody do the things I do before singing
Hey hey hallelujah, hey hey hallelujah
Yeah I drive you crazy and your heart's about to break
You're begging me for mercy, don't know how much you can take singing
Hey hey hallelujah, hey hey hallelujah Baby don't worry, I'm sugar and sweet Baby don't worry, I'm good as can be Baby don't worry, I'm sugar and sweet
Baby don't worry, I'm good as can be Singing hallelujah when you touch me
Hallelujah, Jeff Buckley
Come and hold on, all my clothes out on the street
Find me this lady asking me where we eating
Making me feel good, you pull me on my knees
Love me like you should and make me wanna scream hallelujah!
Can't win, I don't wanna lose ya, all in
I really got a hold on you
You're begging me for more
You never seen nobody do the things I do before singing
Hey hey hallelujah, hey hey hallelujah
Yeah I drive you crazy and your heart's about to break
You're begging me for mercy, don't know how much you can take singing Hey hey hallelujah, hey hey hallelujah I really got a hold on you You're begging me for more You never seen nobody do the things I do before singing Hey hey hallelujah, hey hey hallelujah Yeah I drive you crazy and your heart's about to break You're begging me for mercy, don't know how much you can take singing Hey hey hallelujah, hey hey hallelujah
