

Solo Dolo (Nightmare)

Kid Cudi

Listen good
I don't have nobody
But what I might feel are the sounds of sanity
Hoping what I hear, loops itself continuously
Then I won't be afraid
No no
Oh woah woah woah Why must it feel so wrong when I try and do right, do right
Oh woah woah woah
Soaring through paradise when I'm closing my eyes
I'm, Mr. Solo Dolo
Oh Oh Oh
Oh Oh
Look at me
You tell me Just what you see
Am I, someone whom, you may love, or enemy
Am I speakin' for, you and yours, or someone else
I need some answers
Yeah Yeah Oh woah woah woah
Why must it feel so wrong when I try and do right, do right Oh woah woah woah
Soaring through paradise when I'm closing my eyes
I'm, Mr. Solo Dolo
Oh Oh Oh
Oh Oh My world turns
Flippin' the bird
To the ones who figure, me
Outkast no not the duo
Back at Shaker heights
When they knew
Though little brother was a strange one
Boo hoo
Cry me a river hater Look who
tavelled out an igloo
Cold cold world wasn't fit for me at, all
Look at where I stand at Tall, clutchin' my Kid Cudi b-izz-alls
Mute mothafuckas back home
Quick pause
Gargle on my mayo
Look at me I bet I'm the one you picked to fail
Floatin in my mind
No sail

Ahoy Ahoy
Listen good
I don't need nobody
This is what you feel are the sounds of insanity Hopin what I hear loops itself to finish me No I won't be afraid
Hey Hey
Oh woh woah woah
Why must it feel so wrong when I try and do right, do right
Oh woah woah woah
Soaring through paradise when I'm closing my eyes
I'm, Mr. Solo Dolo
Why must it feel so right when I know that it's wrong, it's wrong
When will I ever learn from the words in my songs
I'm, Mr. Solo Dolo.
