

My Father's Son

The Tenors

I was young when I was told.
Take a chance before you're old.
Live a life you're proud to share.
Don't look back and don't be scared.
Say your prayers and don't be late.
When in doubt just keep the faith.
Learn to walk before you run, and soon you'll be a man my son.
Now I am right where I belong, I hear your voice and I am strong.
And I will carry you with me, 'till journey's end, I'll always be, my father's son, my father's son.
He left me lesson all around.
Like keep your feet on solid ground.
Let your words and honor be.
The truth and strength for all the world to see.
Now I am right where I belong, I hear you voice and I am strong.
And I will carry you with me, 'till journey's end, I'll always be, my father's son, my father's son.
Find the one, don't let her go.
In your heart you'll always know.
Raise your boy to love his mom. '
Cause soon he'll be a man my son.
Now I am right where I belong.
I hear your voice and I am strong.
And I will carry you with me, 'til journey's end, I'll always be, my father's son, my father's son.
I'll always be, my father's son.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>