

All He Says I Am (feat. Cody Carnes)

Gateway Worship

He whispers in my ear
Tells me that I'm fearless
He shares a melody
Tells me to repeat it
And it makes me whole
It reminds my soul I am all He says I am
I am all He says I am
I am all He says I am
And He says I am His own
I was blinded by scales upon my eyes
Then He came like a light
And burned up all the lies
He set me free
He reminded me I am all He says I am
I am all He says I am
I am all He says I am
An He says I am His own Chains are broken
Scales are on the floor
Truth is spoken
I'm no orphan anymore
I am loved
I am new again
I am free
I'm no slave to sin
I'm saint
I am righteousness
I'm alive
