

Wet Dreams

Saya

you wake me up when I'm asleep for days you pull me down, down like tidal waves
when you're around, ooh you make my body ache electricals charging through my veins, my veins it's raining now, dripping on my skin it gives me chills heavy like the wind, you pull me back and forth and back and forth again you love me to the limit that's why you got the ticket, baby drive by down the road
you rock it to cloud 9
I can feel your hypnosis pull me in with your forces go slow down the road
I'm yours set to stone
drowning in a fantasy
come through like a wet dream you turn me on (you turn me on) and off just like a switch now all i want is your lips on my lips take it deeper to my heads drawing circles with you fingertips your sugar candy kisses ooh, they so delicious baby
come through like a wet dream drowning in a dream drowning in a dream drowning in your fantasy when you come home to me find me between velvet sheets
a bubble bath in hennessy wrapped 'round your neck like cuban links and when you come home to me

dripping gold like a wet dream
I can feel your hypnosis pull me in with your forces
