

Vengeance

The Devil Wears Prada

You are a sickness, my only sincere plague
Is this what you've worked for?
Running your false empire to the ground
What is this substance that made your very own morals change? It's gone a little too far to turn back now
It's gone a little too far to turn back
Always running, I am the outcast
Keep running, keep running away On to the next one, how can you have no shame?
Gone is your reason, think of from where you came
God as my witness, there will be no love lost
This is my vengeance, from here on out it's no regrets
You are my sickness, I gave it all my very best
This is my vengeance, from here on out it's no regrets
You are my sickness, I gave it all my very best It's gone a little too far to turn back now
It's gone a little too far to turn back
Always running, I am the outcast It's gone a little too far to turn back now
It's gone a little too far to turn back
Always running, I am the outcast
Keep running, keep running away
On to the next one, driven by what you gain
Broken honor, you came and you went
We're just another crack in the wall
Here with no love lost
