

Stranger (feat. Mikky Ekko)

Chris Malinchak

Baby, what's love?
And what's the mystery for alone?
Cos I can't let it go, this feeling
I wanna be the one
Wanna be the one, you show So let me be your stranger
And feel your love for the very first time
And you know the only danger
Is that I'm giving you all of my pride
Is that I'm giving you all of my pride Tell me, what's missing?
And where did all the good love go?
Cos I've been feeling so, so lonely
I wanna be the one
Wanna be the one, you show
So let me be your stranger
And feel your love for the very first time
And you know the only danger
Is that I'm giving you all of my pride Can you see my love?
Looking through your eyes
Can you see my love?
From the other side So let me be your stranger
And feel your love for the very first time
And you know the only danger
Is that I'm giving you all of my pride Can you see my love?
Looking through your eyes
Can you see my love?
From the other side
Can you see my love?
Looking through your eyes
Can you see my love?
From the other side
