

Broken Heart

Eddie Vedder

Don't mind me
Just let me be
My eyes so far away I don't need no sympathy
The word, it's overplayed I'm alright
It's just tonight
I can't play the part I'm alright
It's alright
It's just a broken heart
Don't have eyes for the world outside
They're closed and turned within
Trying to find the light inside
It's there, yet growing dim
I'm alright
It's just tonight
I can't play the part I'm alright
It's alright
It's just one broken heart
