

Oliver's Lullaby

Bryan Lanning

we rocking back and forth in a rocking chair.
so you can relax so you can take a nap.so you can get the rest you need to go about that day.

oh little one you just need to behave.

just don't make a peep you need to fall asleep so you can get the rest you need to start a brand new day.

oh little one you just need to need to be brave.

oh oh

need to be brave

oh oh.

oh dreaming it's calling you and birds will blue where the blue is the blues, and destiny it longs for you with wings i fly cross a brown buttersky.

But first we are going to be rocking back and forth in a rocking chair.

so you can relax so you can take a nap.

so you can get the rest you need to go about that day.

yeah we rocking back and forth in the rocking chair.

just don't make a peep you need to fall asleep so you can get the rest you need to star a brand new day.

oh little one you just need to need to be brave

oh oh

need to be brave

oh oh

need to be brave.
