

No Control

One Direction

Stained Coffee cup Just a fingerprint of lipstick's not enough
Sweet
Where you lay
Still a trace of innocence on the pillowcase
Waking up
Beside you, I'm a loaded gun I can't contain this anymore
I'm all yours, I've got no control
No control Powerless
And I don't care it's obvious I just can't get enough of you The pedal's down, my eyes are closed
No control
(Oh-oh-oh-oh)
Taste On my tongue
I don't wanna wash away the night before
In the heat
Where you laid
I could stay right here and burn in it all day Waking up
Beside you, I'm a loaded gun I can't contain this anymore
I'm all yours, I've got no control
No control Powerless
And I don't care it's obvious I just can't get enough of you
The pedal's down my eyes are closed No control
Lost my senses
I'm defenceless
Her perfume's holding me ransom
Sweet and sour
Heart devoured
Lying here I count the hours Waking up
Beside you, I'm a loaded gun
I can't contain this anymore
I'm all yours, I've got no control
No control
Powerless
And I don't care it's obvious
I just can't get enough of you
The pedal's down my eyes are closed
No control
(Oh-oh-oh-oh)
No control
(No oh-oh-oh)
No control Powerless
And I don't care it's obvious
I just can't get enough of you

The pedal's down my eyes are closed
No control
