

Papi (feat. Nicole Scherzinger)

Todrick Hall

Travis is it? You have a really big... big personality haha So glad you came to visit

Your talent is exquisite

Is it just me or is it getting hot in here?

The AC might be broken

Let's crack a window open

Then hold me close so you can whisper in my ear

Tell me all your dreams and fantasies

Pardon me, I have a tendency to talk a lot

Lay it all on me

You little sexy piece of chocolate

Well I don't know if I'm your body type

But just close your eyes, enjoy the ride

Won't you sway my waist from side to side?

Make me say, ayy papi, ayy papi

I know that it would be a shame if you blow

The chance to taste the fame

you want all of Oz to know your name

Make me say, ayy papi, ayy papi, ayy Wait don't... wait don't go

A little non-committal

Just meet me in the middle

Don't be afraid our little secret's safe in here

You got potential Trevor

It's Todrick

Whatever

Destiny's calling and, your future is so clear

I can almost see your name in lights

What a sight... my mind is spinning like a carousel

Trevor all I need is a little taste of caramel

Well I don't know if I'm your body type

But just close your eyes, enjoy the ride

Won't you sway my waist from side to side?

Make me say, ayy papi, ayy papi

I know that it would be a shame if you blow

The chance to taste the fame

you want you want all of Oz to know your name

Make me say, ayy papi, ayy papi, ayy Find myself in the strangest predicament

Her intentions could be innocent

But I don't know if I should go through with this

If I do, I risk saying yes

But what if it's a test?

It's a mess

You can rest assured the fate of my success would be less

But the question is if I should tell her no
Would I blow my big break?
Would it be a mistake?
For God's sake, she's gotta no...
She's not my body type
And I know, what's wrong just can't be right
On the one hand you got one life
You should cut yourself some slack
You know once she's had the chocolate then she's never going back
Is she talking a big talk or is this how you play the game?
She says I got star potential, she can't even say my name
How many one-hit-wonders sit and wonder why we never knew of them?
You've never touched a boob in your whole life and she's got two of them
This road is full of choices, tough decisions, rough mistakes
Take the highroad or the easy street, the choice is yours to make
But I don't know if I'm your body type I'm so close to all those emerald lights
Won't you stay and lay with me tonight
Make me say, ayy papi, ayy papi
I know that it would be a shame if you blow
The chance to taste the fame
you want you want all of Oz to know your name
Make me say, ayy papi, ayy papi, ayy
Well I don't know if I'm your body type
But just close your eyes, enjoy the ride
Won't you sway my waist from side to side?
Make me say, ayy papi, ayy papi
I know that it would be a shame if you blow
The chance to taste the fame
you want all of Oz to know your name
Make me say, ayy papi, ayy papi, ayy
