Blame (Fabio Remix)

Everything But the Girl

I know I wasn't good Maybe I was even bad But I was way too young To know just what I had And if I let you down Now I let you go But I was so young And now it's all goneI'm the one to blame I'm the one to blame You must never think I wish that you had stayed Look at where we are I'm glad you got away But who's your daddy now And where's your home You're living somewhere new D'you think he'd take me tooI'm the one to blame I'm the one to blameNow you forgot the words Please don't forget your name And who gave that to you Well that was me again Who let you down and loved you That was me again And who's the one to blame That was me again I'm the one to blame Who let you down and loved you I'm the one to blame I'm the one to blame
