

Could You Be Home

Heffron Drive

I've got, my head under water
Did you steal my thunder
You steal my thunder
I've been, lost in the mazes
My heart locked in cages
Unlock the cagesCause I'm like a road
Like a road that needs paving
Just like a storm
Like a storm needing shaping
Don't care if it brakes my bones
Could you be home
Could you be safety
A place to rest my soul
Cause I've been on my own
for too long
Don't leave it alone
Keep pushing on baby
Cause I've been losing hope
I've been losing
I've been bruised soCould you be home, home
Could you be home
Could you be homeSleeping, sleeping on benches
Lost in the trenches
You pull me from trenches
Cause I've been alone, been alone
I've been taking
Just like a ghost
Like a ghost reawaken
Don't care if it brakes my bonesCould you be home
Could you be safety
A place to rest my soul
Cause I've been on my own
for too long
Don't leave it alone
Keep pushing on baby
Cause I've been losing hope
I've been losing
I've been bruised soCould you be home, home
Could you be home
Could you be homeAhhhh, ooooo, could you be home, yaahhhCould you be home
Could you be safety
A place to rest my soul

Cause I've been on my own
for too long
Don't leave it alone
Keep pushing on baby
Cause I've been losing hope
I've been losing
I've been bruised so
Could you be home, home
Could you be home
Could you be home

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>