

Diamonds (feat. Trevor McNeven)

Manafest

cuz i know diamons aren't the only thing that shines and i know love can make the darkness singi kicked my self out my own house Couldn't stop myself so i just walked out Almost did it againSpoke too soon Called a couple of friends Blood boiled over
I'll be cool in a minuteKicked a few things
That's enough
Are you finished?
Heart in hand calm
As i walk in the doorHold my breath
When i let out a roar
Even good men
Need a little grace
But the world down
In a pick ou faith
Only scared boys try
To save face
Pride in the monthIs a bitter taste
SPIT IT OUT
Don't want it
Don't need put it down
And i just leave it
But i keep hearing it talk
To me
Knows what im thinking
Like it's on to me
Hold my breath when It's hard to breathecuz i know diamons aren't the only thing that shines
and i know love can make the darkness sing
i need a strong tower will power no coward take back the flowers sell the casket get my soul established found a passege strike the matches light my black and light the sky white my fears redeem the time bathroom mirrior
im eye to eye
look inside my soul and try to talk to the guy if he's still alive

pinch myself try not to cry walking in by the sea of the great divide
left my print
i still survive is this the one?
the time is nowcuz i know diamons aren't the only thing that shines
and i know love can make the darkness sing

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>