Days alone, never felt like this
The lights of home, a year away
And it's too late to fight it all, just drive.
And the streets... glow... and the night...

The night is soft SoftAnd it's all inviting as anyone could ever know

and this warm collective we endure...

We endure and pass the moment

We endure and pass the moon.

We endure and pass the moment

We endure.

We endure and pass the moment

We endure and pass the moon.

We endure and pass the moment

We endure. Here's a little riddle bout a when I was a little toddle, piddle in the puddle and my head was in a muddle you can sing it when you're sad, you can sing it when you're mad, you can sing it in the shower come along the latest's

Gaia to gaia t

So we fall on warm silence

I know, yes, I know we all go away.(If you feel like you are incomplete, yet you are still in love yet you are sleeping, eternal I, I, I, I)

So we fall on warm silence I know we all go away!.
