

In Stone (Conducta Remix)

BASECAMP

No changing course
And no control
This was set in motion by the unknown
The unseen hand
The door that waited
As the daylight faded
OutI was tied to your feet
Stuck to your words
Beyond the shadow of a shadow of a doubt
Once the sun came outIt was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was bound to happen all along
Cast in iron, carved in stone
No changing course
And no control
This was set in motion by the unknown
The unseen hand
The door that waited
As the daylight faded
OutI was tied to your feet
Stuck to your words
Beyond the shadow of a shadow of a doubt
Once the sun came outIt was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was bound to happen all along
Cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
It was cast in iron, carved in stone
