

Southern Nights

Glen Campbell

Southern nights
Have you ever felt a Southern night
Free as a breeze, not to mention the trees
Whistling tunes that you know and love so Southern nights
Just as good even when you close your eyes
I apologize to anyone who can truly say
That he has found a better way Southern skies
Have you ever noticed Southern skies It's precious beauty lies just beyond the eye it goes running through your soul
Like the stories of old
Old man, he and his dog
That walk the old land
Every flower touched his cold hand
As he slowly walked by Weeping willows would cry for joy, joy Feel so good, feel so good, it's frightening wish I could stop this world from fighting La da da da da...
Mysteries like this and Many others in the trees
Blow in the night in the Southern skies
Southern nights
They feel so good,
it's frightening wish I could stop this world from fighting La da da da da...
