Say (All I Need)

OneRepublic

Do you know where your heart is? Do you think you can find it? Or did you trade it for something Somewhere better just to have it? Do you know where your love is? Do you think that you lost it? You felt it so strong, but Nothing's turned out how you wantedWell, bless my soul You're a lonely soul Cause you won't let go Of anything you holdWell, all I need Is the air I breathe And a place to rest My head Do you know what your fate is? And are you trying to shake it? You're doing your best and Your best look You're praying that you make itWell, bless my soul You're a lonely soul Cause you won't let go Of anything you holdWell, all I need Is the air I breathe And a place to rest My headI said I all I need Is the air I breathe And a place to rest My head Do you think you can find it? Do you think you can find it? Do you think you can find it? Better than you had it Do you think you can find it? Do you think you can find it? Do you think you can find it? Yeah, better than you had it (Better than you had it)I said I all I need Is the air I breathe And a place to rest My headI said I all I need Is the air I breathe And a place to rest My head

Whenever the end is Do you think you can see it? Well, until you get there Go on, go ahead and scream it Just say it Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.
