

The Coast Is Clear

Tracy Lawrence

You say the weather in Atlanta is foggy and gray
Your work gets harder everyday
And your new boyfriend is holding on too tight I got a gig at the beach, a room with a view
The only thing missin' here is you
Some fresh ocean breeze might ease your mind We could walk barefoot through the warm wet
sand
Take a second look at what we had
I've been thinkin' a lot since I've been here
Past the neon lights and the L.A. haze
I'm a different man these days
So come on out, the coast is clear I got a picture in my wallet, back in '91
That week we spent in the Santa Belle Sun
Ridin' the wave of our love, those were good times But somewhere I got lost and I let you down
Young and naive I didn't know what I'd found
But I do now and there ain't a cloud in my mind We could walk barefoot through the warm wet
sand
Take a second look at what we had
I've been thinkin' a lot since I've been here Past the neon lights and the L.A. haze
I'm a different man these days
So come on out, the coast is clear
Yeah, come on out, the coast is clear
Woah, the coast is clear Woah, the coast is clear
The coast is clear
