

3's & 7's

Queens of the Stone Age

Lie, lie to my face
Tell me it ain't nothing
'Cause that's what I wanna hear
Take the lie to the grave
That's what an old friend told me
Look what it did for him
Oh, oh
The truth hurts so bad, wouldn't you say?
So why tell it?
If ignorance is bliss
Then I'm in Heaven now
Run, you'll never escape
You see, you'll go nowhere
Based on who you appear
Broke, laid to waste
Turn into sweet nothings
Kiss you goodbye
Oh, oh
The truth hurts so bad, wouldn't you say?
So why tell it?
If ignorance is bliss
Then I'm in Heaven now
I keep going over and over again
The neverending places I've never been
No one's catching on, calling my bluff
The Devil made me holier than every man
What'd you do?
Say it with a smile, boy
Making us all forget
What'd you do?
Say it with a smile, boy
Making us all forget
Making us all forget
Making us all forget
