

The Wicked Ones

10 Years

She, she is the love that you make and break
And he, he is the drug that you hate to crave
And I, I am the liar you made to praise
And you, you are the one that we want and need Who will convince us?
The wicked will
Who condemn us?
The wicked will
Who will defend us?
The wicked will
Always We are the wicked, the wicked, the wicked ones who adore you
The wicked, the wicked, the wicked ones we'll destroy you
We are the loss of your innocence
We are the wicked, the wicked, the wicked ones coming for you
We, we are the scar on the skin again
Massive lines of wondering eyes waiting, waiting to be Bastardized, monopolized
Selling clones of every kind Who will convince us?
The wicked will
Who condemn us?
The wicked will
Who will defend us?
The wicked will
Always We are the wicked, the wicked, the wicked ones who adore you
The wicked, the wicked, the wicked ones we'll destroy you
We are the loss of your innocence
We are the wicked, the wicked, the wicked ones (the wicked ones) Kill yourself to save yourself from yourself
Kill yourself to save yourself from yourself
Kill yourself to save yourself from yourself
Before you become one of us
Before you become one of us We are the wicked, the wicked, the wicked ones who adore you
The wicked, the wicked, the wicked ones we'll destroy you
We are the loss of your innocence
We are the wicked, the wicked, the wicked ones (the wicked ones) You will become one of us
