

Darlin'

Houndmouth

Well, I ain't got a kiss left to give you
'Cause you weren't good to me
And I ain't got no news left to feed you
'Cause you weren't good to me

It's cold

It's dark

It's deep and it's wet
And you ain't gonna make it
If you don't let someone in

Darlin'

Darlin'

Darlin'

Why don't you sleep at night?

The colder the heart

The warmer the gun

Shotgun Alynda

Bring me your eyes

I wish to see like you

You're looking froze

And weathered, my dear

And your lips and your cheeks

Are turning blue

It's cold

It's dark

It's deep and it's wet
And you ain't gonna make it
If you don't let someone in

Darlin'

Darlin'

Darlin'

Why don't you sleep at night?

The colder the heart

The warmer the gun

Darlin'

Darlin'

Darlin'

Why don't you sleep at night?

The colder the heart

The warmer the gun
