

Meant To Be

SG Lewis

Is that your man? The one inside?
The one who only loves you half the time
You haven't seen through his disguise
Or through his poker face of wanderin' eyes I didn't have the strength to ask you
I hesitated for too long
And by the time I found my courage the moment was gone If you were mine to throw away
I'd hold on tight, make no mistake
And baby I won't change your mind today
But if it's meant to be, it's meant to be
If you were mine to throw away
I'd hold on tight, make no mistake
And baby I won't change your mind today
But if it's meant to be, it's meant to be I used to know you, remember me?
Remember how you had respect for me?
Do you feel special all left alone?
Or is there nothin' left to call your own? I didn't have the strength to ask you
I hesitated for too long
And by the time I found my courage
The moment was gone If you were mine to throw away
I'd hold on tight, make no mistake
And baby I won't change your mind today
But if it's meant to be, it's meant to be
If you were mine to throw away
I'd hold on tight, make no mistake
And baby I won't change your mind today
But if it's meant to be, it's meant to be It's meant to be ...
