

Casual

Alex Adair

I used to call you, after midnight
It was cold 'cause we both agreed
We were easy, kinda weakly
Just a friend sleeping next to me
Feel like we're loving but my body not my heart
I guess we weren't good at keeping them apart
You say you love me and the feeling's mutual
But what the hell, I thought we said
Let's keep it casual
Let's keep it casual
We were sleeping in the T-shirt
With your hands wrapped around my waist
And you call me, things like baby
And I stayed over every day
Feel like we're loving but my body not my heart
I guess we weren't good at keeping them apart
You say you love me and the feeling's mutual
But what the hell, I thought we said
Let's keep it casual
We tried too hard to be strong, didn't last long
How could we ever resist?
The way that we feel, the way that we touch
Shit got me so powerless
Thought we were chill, so what the hell
How did we end up like this?
Only one I wanna kiss, only your name on my lips
Let's keep it casual
Let's keep it casual
How could we be so damn delusional?
'Cause it was always powerful, beautiful
Let's keep it casual
Let's keep it casual
