

Yesterday's Wine

George Jones & Merle Haggard

Miracles appear in the strangest of places Fancy me finding you here last time I saw you was just out of Houston let me sit down and buy you a beer your presence is welcomed with me and my friend here cuz this is a hangout of mine I come here quite often to listen to music and to taste of yesterday's wine yesterday's wine
yesterday's wine
aging with time
like yesterday's wine
yesterday's wine
yesterday's wine
like yesterday's wine you give the appearance of one widely traveled Lord I bet you've seen things in your time come sit down here with us and tell us your story if it's true you like yesterday's wine yesterday's wine
yesterday's wine
We're aging with time
yesterday's wine
Oh yesterday's wine
We're aging with time
like yesterday's wine We're aging with time
