

Pain

Tyler and the Tribe

You know I love to watch you dance
And every time I do
It's like perfect romance Your heart is like an open flame
Get too close you're gonna feel
Definite Pain. And I need you to feel me now
Yes I want you to feel me now. If I press my lips up to yours,
Would it be okay?
If I told you "just tonight,"
Would it still be that way?
I'm feelin' Pain.
We'll have to keep what we've sewn ourselves into
A jacket of insanity
Impossible as this seems
We're broken, busted and they don't mean one thing And I need you to feel me now
Yes I want you to feel me now. If I press my lips up to yours,
Would it be okay?
If I told you "just tonight,"
Would it still be that way?
I'm feelin' Pain. Rips the clothes of this question
Remember the days you were feelin' it too
I'm standin' here, shaking all alone
What the hell is wrong with you? Cause I need you to feel me now
Yes I want you to feel me now.
If I press my lips up to yours,
Would it be okay?
If I told you "just tonight,"
Would it still be that way?
I'm feelin' Pain. Would it still be that way?
I'm feelin' Pain.
