

Rival (feat. Ellen Smith)

Ilan Bluestone

Did you feel that rush
Take you to another love?
Oh my love
Was it ever really made for us? So we had our fun
Now you can be my rival
But I'm all out of luck
And running for survival How can we be so cold?
Maybe we're afraid
A lover, now a rival
But it's all part of the game I can be your lost love
You can be my rival
See me like an animal
Running for survival
I can be your lost love
You can be my rival
See me like an animal
Running for survival I can be your lost love
You can be my rival
See me like an animal
Running for survival
Running for survival
Running for survival
Running for survival Now that the love is gone
I can be your rival
And even after all is done
Are you gonna wreck it all? Now that the love is lost
I can be your rival
So are you gonna to let me run
Or are you gonna to wreck it all?
Now that the love is gone
I can be your rival
And even after all is done
Are you really gonna wreck it all? Now that the love is lost
I can be your rival
So are you gonna let me run
Or are you gonna to wreck it all? After all is done
Are you really gonna wreck it all?
After all is done
Are you really gonna wreck it all?
