

The Worst of Them

Issues

Funny how every time you push me away
You turn around and you beg me to stay
Cut down from the things you say It's the beating of, a broken drum

Na, na, nana

Hey, hey

Na, na, nana

Hey, hey, hey One of these days

You'll push me away

Turn around It'll be too late

Your love is addictive

I'm trying hard, just to quit it

But you're drowning yourself

You won't catch your breath Until you admit it

Is anybody out there?

I'm dying in a nightmare You've got third degree burns

And now it's your turn

To feel what I, feel, yeah

And if it don't hurt

Then you know what we got

Ain't real

Funny how every time you push me away

You turn around and you beg me to stay

Cut down from the things you say

It's the beating of, a broken drum

Na, na, nana

Hey, hey

Na, na, nana

Hey, hey, hey

One of these days

You'll push me away

Turn around

It'll be too late

This love is a monster

It's eating me alive

Let go of my hand, you don't give a damn

And it's killing me, inside

You show me no mercy

Did God make a mistake?

Put a hole in your heart

And then you can start

To feel what I, feel

If it don't hurt

Then you know what we got
Ain't real, yeah
Funny how every time you push me away
It's the beating of, a broken drum
Na, na, nana
Hey, hey
Na, na, nana
Hey, hey, hey
One of these days
You'll push me away
Turn around
It'll be too late
Where will you go
When you refuse
My benevolence
It's funny how every time you push me away
You turn around and you beg me to stay
Everytime you push me away
You turn around and you beg me to stay
Cut down by the things you say
I've had enough
When you refuse
My benevolence
Funny how every time you push me away
You turn around and you beg me to stay
It's the beating of, a broken drum
Na, na, nana
Hey, hey
Na, na, nana
Hey, hey, hey
One of these days
You'll push me away
Turn around
It'll be too late
