

My Song 5

HAIM

I find it hard, tried to reserve
I'll get it right when I am hurt

(Hot for me)

Romance is on

(Hot for me)

To her he'll go

(Hot for me)

Yet I'll be fine

(Hot for me)

'Cause I know He's in her heart, on the floor thinkin than I'll never know

I'll be up going through crazy shit I did for you

In my mind, in my head seeing all the words unsaid

Honey honey I am never coming home again

I've been lied to

So what's the truth?

Now I'm not gonna hide it all, keep it in all from you

I've been going dying to know what you tried

You've been lying so

Honey I'm not your honey pie He's in her heart, on the floor thinkin than I'll never know

I'll be up going through crazy shit I did for you

In my mind, in my head seeing all the words unsaid

Honey honey I am never coming home again Nothing you want does that thing to replace

Keep holing on for eternity, say you only want me

Missing you'll never lead to much of anything

If you wanna know, if you wanna show It needs what it seems, so to be you

He'll buy nothing, just through again

I'll never let it go

Honey I'm not your honey pie

He's in her heart, on the floor thinkin than I'll never know

I'll be up going through crazy shit I did for you

In my mind, in my head seeing all the words unsaid

Honey honey I am never coming home again Tried to be like a god

I'm too here on the rise, I'm tryin

Tried to be like a god

I'm too here on the rise, I'm tryin He's in her heart, on the floor thinkin than I'll never know

I'll be up going through crazy shit I did for you

In my mind, in my head seeing all the words unsaid

Honey honey I am never coming home again I've been lied to

So what's the truth?

Now I'm not gonna hide it all, keep it in all from you

I've been going dying to know what you tried

You've been lying so

Honey I'm not your honey pie
