Lotus

Minus the Bear

There are no ghosts

Watching through your walls So put the cross down And there are no angels Reading your thoughts Keep your feet on this groundWe getting scared yet? The man in the blue suit's got God Are we there yet? The congregation's been sold off, They've been boughtWhat to do about tomorrow? Please let it come, just let it come What you gonna do about today, man? It's right here staring you in the face What a difference that would make If we were finally awakeWe getting scared yet? The man in the blue suit's got guns Are we there yet? The congregation's been killed off Are we getting scared yet?

We drop our bombs to lift them upYou've gotta be out of your head!

Is it worth all the dead?

Do you like it?Does the wife

Mind the touch

Of your reddened hand,

Or the money on your breath?

Does your balance turn her on

Regardless of the sin?

Blind your eyes watching sunbeams

You can't see this creeping pack of dogs

Blind your eyes watching sunbeams

The pure bred beasts wait licking their chops
