

Go Don't Stop

Mat McHugh

I've been holding out for way too long,
been hoping you say you're mine.
I've been so in doubt you'll play along,
down low and always behind.
So, go slow, don't rush, don't care too much.
Don't make me hold onto you.
Girl, beware you touch me just enough,
and maybe I'll play your fool.
Be singing Š
Go, don't stop.
Won't feel no strain, no pop.
Won't be no lonely days, not anymore.
Keep saying,
Go, don't quit.
Just stay, get used to it.
Won't be no lonely waves run to the shore.
To the shore, to the shoreŠ
It's all waiting, chancing, true romancing.
Stay, we're too young to go.
Lights are fading, dancing crazy like there's maybe too much to know.
It's the same old life, all pay the price.
No dice, we all fall for love.
Run away, think twice, no sacrifice, no stalling, no push and shove.
Just singing Š
Go, don't stop.
Won't feel no strain, no pop.
Won't be no lonely days, not anymore.
Keep saying,
Go, don't quit.
Just stay, get used to it.
Won't be no lonely waves run to the shore.
To the shore, to the shore
