

So I Can Have You Back

Joe

Can you hear me when I pray for you
Never knew tears could make an ocean blue
Fear of forever is a door that I don't want closed, closed Pictures and pictures of the smile I remember
This just can't all be true I hope he makes the biggest mistake
The unforgivable that makes your heart break
I hope you tell him "sorry is just not enough"
And it goes from good to bad, so I can have you back So many memories tells how long it's been
And I accept the blame as to why you're with him
He wouldn't approve of us just being friends
Please, that's all I need Out of respect I back away for a while Promise to keep me in mind
I hope he makes the biggest mistake
The unforgivable that makes your heart break
I hope you tell him "sorry is just not enough"
And it goes from good to bad, so I can have you back There is nobody like you
(So I can have you back)
Without you, I don't know what to do
The love you gave to to me
I'm using it to breathe
I know you think I'm wrong
But it keeps me holding on, to you
Keeps me holding on, to you The love you gave to to me
I'm using it to breathe
I know you think I'm wrong
But it keeps me holding on, to you
Keeps me holding on, to you
I hope he makes the biggest mistake
The unforgivable that makes your heart break
I hope you tell him "sorry is just not enough"
And it goes from good to bad, so I can have you back
