

Living Again

Cee-Lo

Oh sometimes we're winners
Sometimes we're losers
Love is so blind
You were my best friend
Now I am finally opening my eyes
And though my heart now is broken
I'm all in pieces
I can stand on my own
I'm gonna try start a new story
My sorrow's goodbye
I'm living again
You hurt me
Can't believe it was you
I can't believe it was you
Was everything we had just a lie?
Scars will burn cause you hurt me, hurt me
So deep inside my soul
I know I'll be okay, someday I'll be okay
But even when I break out of the pain
Could I love and trust again, you hurt me
Oh, sometimes it makes us, sometimes it breaks us
Love is so blind
I didn't know you could,
I didn't know you would stab from behind
And though my heart now is broken
I'm all in pieces
I can stand on my own
I'm gonna try start a new story
My sorrow's goodbye
I'm living again
You hurt me
Can't believe it was you
I can't believe it was you
Was everything we had just a lie?
Scars will burn cause you hurt me, hurt me
So deep inside my soul
I know I'll be okay, someday I'll be okay
But even when I break out of the pain
Could I love and trust again, you hurt me
You hurt me
Can't believe it was you
I can't believe it was you
Was everything we had just a lie?
Scars will burn cause you hurt me, hurt me
So deep inside my soul
I know I'll be okay, someday I'll be okay
But even when I break out of the pain
Could I love and trust again, you hurt me
