

I'll Never Love Again

New Found Glory

You don't have to settle for me at all
I'll never be the one you want
I'll never ever be the one under your arms and I don't have the face to turn heads or the body that cuts loose ends (?)
I swear I need to get a hold again I can't get to you
(I swear I've tried)
If I can't get to you
(I'll never love again)
I'm not comfortable in my own skin
I'm ashamed of being myself
I wear my shame I wear it all too well
And I don't have the words to work this out
Your reactions fill with doubt
I am shallow this is what I've found I can't get to you
(I swear I've tried)
If I can't get to you
(I'll never love again) I can't get to you
(I swear I've tried)
If I can't get to you
(I'll never love again) And you leave me with no choice
But to blow this out of the water
Now you leave me with no choice
If I can't get to you
(I swear I've tried)
If I can't get to you
(I'll never love again)
If I can't get to you
(I swear I've tried)
If I can't get to you
(I'll never love again)
