

Lionheart

Blind Guardian

Speak to me, it all would be easier
Wanna talk to you, who is that?
Do I hear a whisper or do I hear a cry?
Across the brown land, the stumps of time Oh, turn the wheel and heal me
Since moonlights fade I'm empty, heal me I'm in search of the lionheart
(Drown Ulysses)
I am ashamed, I myself can't make it
Drowned here in the silence
(Drown Ulysses)
'Cause down to Hades, I've gone but I cannot get out
Down below I can't free my mind
(Soon I will fade away)
Down below I can't free my mind
(Soon I will fade)
Tic, tac is the message
And the lunatic fears, he's no more Speak to me, it all would be easier
While I'm passing by, who's that?
Do I hear a whisper or do I hear a cry?
Across the brown land the ghost arrives Pick up my bones and tell me
Is this the lake of fire? Hell, please I'm in search of the lionheart
(Drown Ulysses)
Nobody else but the pure can save me
Drowned here in the silence
(Drown Ulysses)
'Cause down to Hades I've gone but I cannot get out
Ruins rule my memories, can't recall the signs
Invite the dead then silence struck my mind
Silence is madness
Tic, tac, tic, tac, tic says the clock
(Silence is madness) Speak to me, it all would be easier
Wanna talk to you, hear me
Welcome to the sad place and hand me what is mine
I'm the Theban prophet, the dead and blind And from the sea you'll feel me
Then you'll breathe out gently, leave me I'm in search of the lionheart
(Drown Ulysses)
I am ashamed, I myself can't make it
Drowned here in the silence
(Drown Ulysses)
'Cause down to Hades I've gone but I cannot get out
