

Instant Patience (String Version) [Live]

JFDR

Anything there is.
A kind of omnipresence
in your words
and in your console. Hold my breath down until i'm better and more patient. I've seen your mouth twice and upper arms once.
Is it logical?
Incomprehensible admiration consolation instant patience. Fairly puzzled by how we are fate's production. sudden crosses different forces different causes And randomly thrown around
like a paper boat on brutal waves colossal crashes lifted up towards distant visions.
Is it logical???
complete coincidence
pure profoundness
wonderfulness
instant patience.
