Blue Christmas

Elvis Presley & Martina McBride

I'll have a blue Christmas without you
I'll be so blue just thinking about you
Decorations of red on a green Christmas tree
Won't be the same, dear, if you're not here with meAnd when those blue snowflakes start falling
That's when those blue memories start calling
You'll be doin' all right with your Christmas of white
But I'll have a blue, blue, blue, blue ChristmasYou'll be doin' all right with your Christmas of white

But I'll have a blue, blue, blue, blue Christmas Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.
