

Hard Road

Sam Roberts

Feel
Feel it grow
In your mind
In your mind
Life
Is how you live it
Through time
Through time And there's no desert sun
That is hot enough
To feed your fire
We shipwreck like fools
Only to become
The ocean's choir
And the sun dies until it's reborn
And there's no road
That ain't a hard road
To travel on Got lost on my way
But you
Found the road again
Stay true to your friends
Cause they'll save you
In the end There must be something in the air, in the air
Some kind of answer to my prayers, to my prayers
Some kind of answer to my prayers Been dying since the day I was born
Cause there's no road
That ain't a hard road
To travel on
I have a vision in my mind
Of a life that I've left behind
Yeah, can't you see that
Lost souls
Can't swim
You know you'll sink
But you still jump in And it's alright
To get caught
Stealing back
What you've lost Yeah, don't you know that
Lost souls
Can't swim
You beat them back
Or they'll drag you in And I can't say
That I am sorry

For all my medicines And you try to find a love
That'll see you through your darkest days
And her soft brown hair
Is as long as a Canadian highway And the sun dies until it's reborn
But there's no road
That ain't a hard road
To travel on Been dying since the day I was born
Cause there's no road
That ain't a hard road
To travel on There must be something in the air, in the air
