ireon akmongiramyeon yeongyeong kkaeji anheulgeEnglish Translation

So are you happy now
Finally happy now are you I'm the same
I think I've lost it all Everything comes on it's own and leaves without a goodbye
At this rate, I don't want to love anything
I'm taking a trip through the memories
That are almost all worn out Under the orange sun
We're dancing without a shadow
There's no decided goodbye
Let's meet in the beautiful memories
Forever young Woo
Forever we young
Woo

If this is a nightmare, I don't wanna wake up Island, this is an island
An island that each of us made
Forever young, the term forever is like a sand castle Goodbyes are like a disaster text
You face the morning with longing
Let's pass this eternity
And meet on this island again Just like someone said to me for comfort
It's so hard to forget a single memory
Even after time passes
This place still holds onto me Under the orange sun
We're dancing without a shadow
There's no decided goodbye
Let's meet in the beautiful memories
Forever young We are laying on each other
Sharing stories that aren't sad
There are no sad endings

I'll meet you in these memories forever
Forever youngWoo
Forever we young
Woo
If this is a nightmare, I don't wanna wake up
