(spoken: i wish I knew how to dance,
Just leave it kim)I'm not stoned but I wanted to tell ya
When I'm in the mood, I could think of playing there
Going to seattle where the rock's so heavy
With all them sex dogs in my chevyAt the extacy party, everybody look at me
Cool, give it dude, we're plastic like you
Going to the show that rocks all night
And everyone I hate is at the party tonightI said

Hey jon
I just want to know what the heck is going on Well, you know, we have this problem
What the heck is going on?
Yeah, ok, do you think you would have too much trouble
If we got rid of our sideburns?At your earliest convenience
Well, you said that before
But do you think bruce would mind?
