

Lost Boy

Lush

There's a face I recognize
Seeing it again is such a lovely surprise
Beckoning me with your smile
Wait just a while till I know where I am
I feel your fingers slipping out of my hand
No, I've lost you
Where'd you go to? Faces from my side
Seems I'm always just a moment behind
Then I saw you walk outside
There's something in the back again
Why did I think I'd never see you at night
Oh, I'm dreaming
Don't stop sleeping
Room to room I roam to find you
I should've never let you out of my sight
Desperate to be beside you
I didn't know I'd never see you again
Just want a moment to be with you again Oh, I'm waking
Now you're fading
