

Sour

Limp Bizkit

mellow out!
bitch...lay lowlay low...i thought i knew ya took the time to put my love into ya screw ya cuz now u got me sitin in the sewer im through with all them roller coaster rides see i aint forgot about the knots that u been tieing with my insides i dropped my pride without u i was sure to die i tried with cash did all i could to make it last now i accept that that wus in the past i know u love me you love me like a peice of trash but at first u were so sweet couldnt go without seeing ur face for an hour (so sour) it all became a haste u were even livin in my castle just to use me and verbaly abuse me thats not the way im runnin my show it took awhile to see the light before i stopped and u got dropped off its over, probly ill be sweatin it but in the long run you'll be the one regreting it maybe u won't, maybe u will but baby ur still about as real as a 3 dollar bill(chorus) theres no 1 to blame, but you and who gets the blame? me x2
oh oh, i sound like a bitch (a little bitch in heat) over that heat that i am feeling bitch i think its cheap another split tale, just another split tale thanx for the lesson, now get ur shit and hit the trail u kno im comin from that old school u dam fool intensity is something that im made of and certianly im not afraid of a little smack in my face thanx for that tastechorus x2
