

Love You No Matter What

Anthony Green

Marley or James
Michael or Jane
Whatever your name
Elaborate or plain Even if spikes grow from out of your head
And you're shooting vomit fire all on the bed
And you grow up to hate me; completely insane
Then we will be the same I'll love you no matter what [x3] If you're fat or you're small,
Really short or so tall,
The weirdest of all. Even if I'm shocked every time we embrace,
And you're shitting spiders all over the place.
You don't wanna love me; you don't want my love.
Know I'll never give up
I'll love you no matter what [x4]
