

Invincible

TOOL

Long in tooth and soul
Longing for another win
Lurch into the fray Weapon out and belly in Warrior Struggling
To remain
Consequential
Bellow Aloud
Bold and proud
Of where I've been
But here I am Beating chest and drums
Beating tired bones again
Age-old battle, mine
Weapon out and belly in Tales told of battles won
Of things we've done
Caligula would grin Beating tired bones tripping through remember when Once invincible
Now the armor's wearing thin
Heavy shield down Warrior
Struggling
To remain
Relevant
Warrior
Struggling
To remain
Consequential
Cry aloud, bold and proud
Of where I've been
But here I am
Where I end
Warrior
Struggling
to remain
Relevant
Warrior
Struggling
To remain
Consequential Tears in my eyes chasing Ponce de Leon's phantom soul
So filled with hope, I can taste mythical fountains
False hope, perhaps
But the truth never got in my way
Before now, feel the sting, feeling time bearing down Tears in my eyes chasing Ponce de Leon's

phantom soul
So filled with hope, I can taste mythical fountains
False hope, perhaps
But the truth never got in my way
Before now, feel the sting, feeling time bearing down False hope, perhaps
But the truth never got in my way
Before now, feel the sting, feeling time bearing down Bearing down
