

Crystal Baller

Third Eye Blind

I close my eyes and I see a freak
I think it's me and I'm afraid to speak
I keep on going from week to weakness
Way out in a line
I dream of lives we could have had before
But the heat is broke down open doorways
Friends of yours tell me more
What happens in your mind Can we try and take the high road
Though we don't know where it ends
I want to be your Crystal Baller
I want to show you how it ends
Macramé queens in the afternoon
And I'm in tune or did I speak too soon
Punch drunk on somebody's joke
What happened to the time?
A footnote in your dance of days
In my mind that record still plays
Still wonder what the fuck it says
Hoping there is time Can we try and take the high road
Though we don't know where it ends
I want to be your Crystal Baller
I can show you how it ends
Can we talk about tomorrow
(Some get it, some must wait a while, some get it)
And the promise that it brings
(Some get it, some must wait a while, some get it)
I want to be your Crystal Baller
(Some get it, some must wait a while, some get it)
I want to show you everything
(Some must wait a while, some get it) I wonder what the whole things for I wonder what the whole things for
In the moment you were screaming at me
I must have been somebody else
And the patrons of the pub keep singing Macramé queens in the afternoon
And I'm in tune or did I speak too soon
Punch drunk up on somebody's joke
What happened to the time? I dream of lives we could have had before where the heat is broke down open doorways
Like waiting for a trick to score
It seems that way some times
I wonder where were all going
I'm homesick for your primal knowing

I wonder why the wind keeps blowing you through my mind
Try and take the high road
(Some get it, some must wait a while, some get it)
Remember we were friends
(Some get it, some must wait a while, some get it)
I want to be your Crystal Baller
(Some get it, some must wait a while, some get it)
I want to be your diamond ring
(Some get it, some must wait a while, some get it)
The one I never gave you
(Some get it, some must wait a while, some get it)
And the promise that it brings
(Some get it, some must wait a while, some get it)
Let me be your Crystal Baller
(Some get it, some must wait a while, some get it)
I will show you everything
(Some get it, some must wait a while, some get it) I'll be your Crystal Baller
Crystal Baller
I'll be your Crystal Baller
Crystal Baller
Uh!
