Might As Well Get Stoned

Chris Stapleton

Well, she said, she didn't love me And kicked me out the door Now I'm livin' in one room And sleepin' on the floor Think I'm gonna kick my boots off And put some music on And since I'm all alone I might as well get stoned might as well get stoned Get it off my mind Ain't got a thing to do All I've got is time The bottle's all I've had to be a friend of mine And since my whiskey's gone I might as well get stoned Now every time I watch the TV Another soldier dies Another brother's gone Another mother cries Now I know they've got a job to do But if I had one wish I wish they'd all come home So, we could all get stoned I might as well get stoned Get it off my mind Ain't got a thing to do All I've got is time

The bottle's all I've had to be a friend of mine
And since my whiskey's gone
I might as well get stoned, I might as well get stoned
