

Comatose

Mikky Ekko

I lost my head out in the cold
Pins and needles always waiting
You lost your nerve and all control
I can feel it, I can feel it and it feels like waiting
We push and pull, revolving doors
We end up where we were before, right back at the scene
Like an open door to an empty room
There's still a part of me needing part of you
In another life we could work it out
But we never speak, so it's hard to
Do we really want to live this way?
'Cause all I really want is you to stay
Maybe it's easier, comatose
We worked so hard to stay above
All temptations we created
Now we go under and call it love
I can feel it, I can feel it, but the feeling's fading
We push and pull, revolving doors
We end up where we were before, right back in the dream
Like an open door to an empty room
There's still a part of me needing part of you
In another life we could work it out
But we never speak, so it's hard to
Do we really want to live this way?
'Cause all I really want is you to stay
Maybe it's easier, maybe it's easier
Like an open door to an empty room
There's still a part of me needing part of you
In another life we could work it out
But we never speak, so it's hard to
Do we really want to live this way?
'Cause all I really want is you to stay
Maybe it's easier, maybe it's easier comatose
But I don't really wanna live this way
And all you really want is me to say
Baby, we can work it out, comatose
