Little You & I

Jason Mraz

You close your eyes you say goodnight in your own special way you rest your head and you rest your mind and there you gothere you go so fast, so fast asleep there you are without a care when or where but there you are i swear without a care where it is you laySpiraling spaces tangled up in moments of touching time trying to find some somewhere sleeping sideways pockets full of nothing, head exploding from the mind too much time for dancing in our hair sister don't be shy between little you and i mouths in line, tears beside and we're gonna weep in between the sleep until we float away into broken promises too much too hard to keepand we would sell our souls to the devil if he promised us hell it's something we already know so well and it's right on, right on the tip of our tongue something big that has already begun (something dead but not quite numb) and i'm singing it mouths in line, tears beside and we're gonna weep in between the sleep until we float away into broken promises too much too hard to keep
