

September

Deborah Cox

I can't believe,
the years past,
seems like yesterday was that day in September... Yea, yea... oh yea yea (I remember the day in September) Verse 1: It started, off as the best of friends,
no intention,
of falling in love again,
he held me,
there in my time of needs,
my heart was set free,
what a sweet memory
Chorus: The day I fell in love, (fell in love)
It was so beautiful, (ooh)
His hands, his tender touch
I remember the day in September When we fell in love... Verse 2: It was an, unexpected night
The sun was,
somewhere but out of sight,
So familiar yet unexplored a new We surrender to our love and blue Chorus:
The day I fell in love, (fell in love)
It was so beautiful, (so beautiful)
His hands, his tender touch
I remember the day in September
When we fell in love... I couldn't believe it was love, the passion we felt between us,
The warmth of your touch,
(It was a night to remember, on the day we fell in love...)
love in September!... Chorus: The day I fell in love, it was so beautiful (so beautiful)
his hands, his tender touch,
I remember the day in September
when we fell in love...
I couldn't believe it was love!
The passion we felt between us!
the warmth of your touch
(it was a night to remember) ... Remember!
(on the day we fell in love) ... Love in September!
(The day I fell in love, it was so beautiful) .so beautiful

(his hands, his tender touch), ...hmm, i remember the day in september when we fell in love!(The day i fell in love).ooh yea yea(i remember the day in september were we fell in love)(The day i fell in love).

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>