Sweat the Battle Before the Battle Sweats You

Cute Is What We Aim For

This is a seasonal affair So be there or be square The invitation said so So just let that ego go And watch it strike back like a boomerang Scared stiff and not sure how to deal with it You're a legend in this room Only in this roomOh goodness me Oh goodness my mind has slipped And wiped you away from it Same shit, different day, same shit Same shit, different day Now let's, let's backtrack and back it up We have a whole lot to prove You hike your skirt And pull your shirt down To give those gents what they crave Because as you say You love to save To save Now let's, let's backtrack and back it up We have a whole lot to proveLet the sweat drop Calm, collected, and cunning Watch those jaws drop The sweat is still running Some have labeled me so savvy And I'll admit I agree to disagree Do your knees go weak when I simply speak? And did you, did you hear that I am so charming? Oh yeah and I bow and bow But I'm not sure I can bare it Same shit, different day, same shit Same shit, different day Now let's, let's backtrack and back it up We have a whole lot to proveLet the sweat drop Calm, collected, and cunning Watch those jaws drop The sweat is still running Let the sweat drop Calm, collected, and cunning Watch those jaws drop

The sweat is still runningThis is a seasonal affair So be there or be square The invitation said so So just let that ego goLet the sweat drop Calm, collected, and cunning Watch those jaws drop The sweat is still running Let the sweat drop Calm, collected, and cunning Watch those jaws drop The sweat is still running
